...RESPONDENTS

THE HON'BLE MR JUSTICE B.PRAKASH RAO

And

THE HON'BLE MR JUSTICE RAMESH RANGANATHAN

WRIT PETITION NO.23087 of 2006

ORDER: (Per the Hon'ble Mr Justice Ramesh Ranganathan)

Aggrieved by the order of the Andhra Pradesh Administrative Tribunal, Hyderabad ('the Tribunal' for brevity) in V.M.A.No.772 of 2006 in O.A.No.2259 of 2006 dated 30.08.2006; the present Writ Petition is filed.

It is not necessary for us to note the facts in detail inasmuch as the impugned order under challenge dated 29.03.2006 was directed to be treated as a show cause notice and the petitioner-applicant was directed by the Tribunal to make a representation to the authority concerned in response thereto and the respondents were directed to pass appropriate orders on considering the petitioner's representation within a period of one month thereafter in accordance with the rules and till such time final orders were passed as directed, the petitioner-applicant was directed to be continued in the present post of Typist. Since the interest of the petitioner is protected, inasmuch as pending final orders being passed on the basis of his representation to the show cause notice, he has been directed to be continued as a Typist, we see no reason to exercise our discretion to interfere with the order of the Tribunal. Suffice to hold that the petitioner shall submit a detailed representation within a period of four {4} weeks from today and the respondents shall consider the contentions raised in the representation, pass a reasoned order and communicate the order to the petitioner.

Subject to the above, the Writ Petition is disposed of. However, in the circumstances, without costs.
